

Washington Men's Camerata, directed by Scott Tucker, is DC's premier chorus performing, promoting, and preserving diverse tenor and bass choral music and camaraderie since 1984. The Camerata has sung at The Kennedy Center, The White House, Smithsonian institutions, National Gallery of Art, Wolf Trap, Strathmore, and across the region; alongside National Symphony Orchestra, The U.S. Army Chorus, Washington Symphonic Brass, Mark Morris Dance Group, Symphony Orchestra of Northern Virginia, and on NPR, PBS, and SiriusXM. The Camerata has recorded six albums and the Washington Commanders fight song. A 501(c)(3) nonprofit, the organization regularly commissions and premieres pieces that become part of their national lending library of sheet music, The Demetrius Project, with over 200,000 scores of 3,300 works.
